Preventing Reading Difficulties: Research to Practice

The Window from PreK to Third Grade

Friday, October 10, 2008
Columbia, Missouri

You are invited to attend a conference sponsored by First Chance For Children's Early Reading First Grant Project. Two national authorities on readiness and instruction will share evidence, facts, data and the national perspective on effective instructional programming for the prevention of reading difficulties. Emphasis will be on: curriculum and fidelity to curriculum implementation; the alignment of curriculum and a continuum of instruction from preschool through third grade, and; pre-service training and professional development for teachers.

Speakers: Dr. David Dickinson

Dr. Louisa Moats

Registration: No registration fee
